

Social History of the Jews in Antiquity

Studies in Dialogue with Albert Baumgarten Edited by Jonathan Ben-Dov and Michal Bar-Asher Siegal

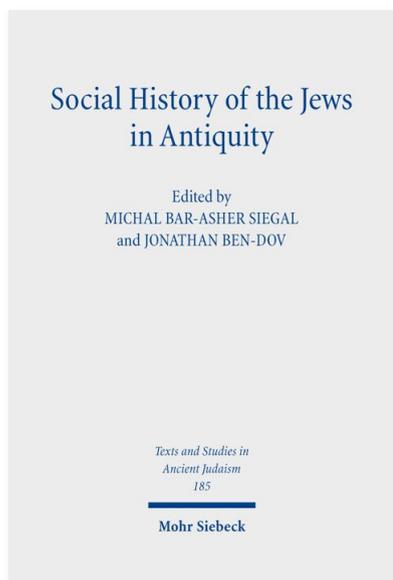

[Social History of the Jews in Antiquity]

Published in English.

The present volume comprises articles by renowned international scholars in academic dialogue with the work of Albert Baumgarten. They contextualize ancient Jewish texts not only for their own sake, but also as a way of shedding light on antiquity in general. They address texts from the fields of Greco-Roman studies, Hellenistic Judaism, Second Temple sectarianism, rabbinic literature, and various facets of early Christianity. Additionally, there are articles discussing comparative religion, sociology of knowledge, anthropology, and economic history. Together, the articles create an in-depth analysis of the social history of Jews in antiquity.

Michal Bar-Asher Siegal Born 1979; was an elected member of the Israel Young Academy of Sciences, Harry Starr Fellow at Harvard University, and visiting professor at Yale University; currently scholar of rabbinic Judaism and associate professor at the Goldstein-Goren Department of Jewish Thought, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev.

Jonathan Ben-Dov Born 1971; has been a research fellow at New York University (ISAW), The University of Durham, and the Israel Institute for Advanced Studies (Jerusalem); currently associate professor at the department of Bible, Tel Aviv University.

2021. XV, 401 pages. TSAJ 185

ISBN 978-3-16-160708-0
DOI 10.1628/978-3-16-160708-0
eBook PDF €174.00

ISBN 978-3-16-160694-6
cloth €174.00

---

Order now:

<https://www.mohrsiebeck.com/en/book/social-history-of-the-jews-in-antiquity-9783161607080/>

Phone: +49 (0)7071-923-17

Fax: +49 (0)7071-51104