Das Internationale Anfechtungsrecht in der Insolvenz

Die Anknüpfung der Insolvenzanfechtung

[The International Right of Avoidance in Insolvency Proceedings. The Connecting Factor to Insolvency Rescission.]

Published in German.

Which law should be applied for judging the voidability of legal acts which cause damage to assets in the case of cross-border insolvencies? Sebastian Zeeck examines the three models which have been discussed up to now and rejects all three. In their stead, he suggests a new one: an alternative connection which invokes the law most favorable to avoidance, thus giving rescission better chances of success in international insolvency procedures which are, by nature, especially prone to manipulation.

Sebastian Zeeck Geboren 1966; Studium der Rechtswissenschaft in Hamburg und München; danach Tätigkeit als Dozent; seit 1998 Anwalt; 2002 Promotion; derzeit stellvertretender Leiter der Stabsrechtsabteilung einer großen Handelsgruppe.
