Das Rechtfertigungsprinzip

Eine Vertragstheorie

[The Principle of Justification. A Contract Theory.]

Published in German.

Classical contract theory focuses solely on the contracting parties at the tiny moment of conclusion. In reality, however, contract law organizes a highly sophisticated decision-making process, involving many participants at various times, pursuing a single aim: Each contracting party shall be legally bound only as far as is necessary to serve his or her own goals (principle of justification).

Markus Rehberg Geboren 1971; LL.M.-Abschluss an der University of Cambridge; Promotion zum Dr. iur an der Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin; Habilitation an der Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München; Professor für Bürgerliches Recht, Deutsches und Internationales Wirtschaftsrecht, Rechtstheorie und Rechtsökonomik an der Universität Rostock.
