Ein anderes Gericht in Oberschlesien

Sondergericht Kattowitz 1939–1945

[A Different Court in Upper Silesia. Special Court in Katowice 1939–1945.]

Published in German.

The Special Court in Katowice was a German criminal court set up after the attack on Poland in 1939 that operated until January 1945. The annexation of Upper Silesia by the Third Reich and the introduction of the German People's List saw the court deal with criminal, economic and political offences under the Nazi regime's wartime criminal law. Konrad Graczyk scrutinises all areas of the court's activities, basing his research on German and Polish archive material.

Konrad Graczyk Geboren 1991; Wissenschaftlicher Mitarbeiter an der Fakultät für Jura und Verwaltung der Schlesischen Universität in Kattowitz sowie Mitarbeiter des Büros für Historische Forschung des Instituts des Nationalen Gedenkens in Warschau.
