Essays on the Book of Isaiah

[Aufsätze zum Buch Jesaja.]

Published in English.

This collection of twenty essays by Joseph Blenkinsopp on different aspects of the book of Isaiah is the product of three decades of close study of the most seminal and challenging texts of the Hebrew Bible. Five of the twenty are published here for the first time. Some deal with major themes in Isaiah, for example, universalism, the Hebrew God as creator in dialogue with Babylonian and Zoroastrian theologies of creation, theology and politics, and the Suffering Servant of the Lord God, which is of such great influence on the presentation of the life and death of Jesus in the New Testament. Others consist in close readings of specific texts in the book Aufsätze zum Buch Jesaja.

Joseph Blenkinsopp Born 1927; 1958 S.S.L. (Licentiate in Sacred Scripture) from the Pontifical Biblical Institute; 1967 PhD in Hebrew Bible and Semitics from the University of Oxford; John A. O'Brien Professor Emeritus of Biblical Studies in the Department of Theology at the University of Notre Dame.
