Expert witness conferencing in Schiedsverfahren

[Expert Witness Conferencing in Arbitration.]

Published in German.

Even though enlisting external specialist knowledge through expert witnesses is an integral part of international arbitration, such experts and the closely-linked cross-examinations of their opinions are subject to constant criticism. An alternative is the increasingly widespread practice of expert witness conferencing. But, asks Caroline Elisabeth Proske, is it a profitable and advantageous one compared to the conventional way of dealing with experts and their reports?
