Published in German.
Modern international tax law was born in the 1920s. Germany played a key role in the development of international agreements to avoid tax evasion and double taxation. Its protagonist and pioneer Herbert Dorn decisively influenced German fiscal politics, the Fiscal Committee of the League of Nations and the new science of international tax law.

Christoph Bräunig Geboren 1981; Studium der Rechtswissenschaft in Heidelberg und Bologna; 2014 Promotion in Heidelberg; seit 2014 Richter am Landgericht Hamburg.
