Eine Untersuchung von Prozessen kooperativer Maßstabskonkretisierung in der Energieregulierung

[Consultations. A Study of the Processes of the Cooperative Establishment of Standards in Energy Regulation.]

Published in German.

Energy regulation is a complex and dynamic process which is in need of legal standards. With the so-called consultations, Karsten Herzmann studies the processes essential for this in knowledge generation and the coordination between the regulatory authorities and market actors from the perspective of administrative science, administrative law and constitutional law.

Karsten Herzmann Geboren 1977; Studium der Rechtswissenschaft in Gießen, Gent und Florenz; stellvertretender Leiter des Instituts für Wachstumsstudien in Gießen; derzeit Rechtsreferendar am Landgericht Aachen.
