Published in German.

Johann Joachim Spalding (1714–1804) was one of the main representatives of the theology of enlightenment in Germany. This work is an essential and influential contribution to the debate around 1800 concerning the concept, nature and function of religion. The critical edition is the first to include all individual editions of his works. It also contains an introduction, a list of direct quotes and an index.

Johann J. Spalding (1714–1804) Religionsphilosoph, Hauptvertreter der deutschen Aufklärungstheologie, Oberkonsistorialrat.
