Revision der Konkurrenzlehre

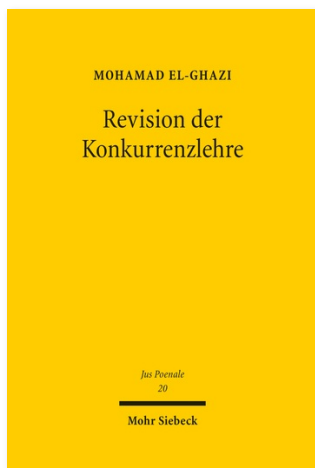

Unrechts- und Schulddivergenzen zwischen Ideal- und Realkonkurrenz

[Revising the Doctrine of Multiple Offences. Injustice and Guilt Divergences between Singular and Plural Offences.]

Published in German.

German criminal law distinguishes between cases where one single offender commits several separate punishable acts and cases in which one single (natural or legal) act violates several different provisions. The advantage given to perpetrators in the latter category demands justification that is measured against the principle of culpability.
