

Barbara Manthe

Richter in der nationalsozialistischen Kriegsgesellschaft

Beruflicher und privater Alltag von Richtern des Oberlandesgerichtsbezirks Köln, 1939–1945

[Judges in the National Socialist War Society. The Professional and Private Everyday Life of Judges in the Higher Regional Court District of Cologne, 1939–1945.]

Published in German.

Barbara Manthe analyzes the everyday history of judges in the higher regional court district of Cologne during the Second World War. She asks how judges implemented and produced national socialist ideas of the »Volksgemeinschaft« (people's community) in their jurisdiction, how they managed their private life during the bombing, and examines the activities of judges from the Cologne district in occupied Poland.

Barbara Manthe Geboren 1980; Studium der Geschichte, Politikwissenschaft und Philosophie an der Universität zu Köln; 2012 Promotion; derzeit in der Politischen Bildungsarbeit tätig.
