

Hans-Josef Klauck

Studien zum Korpus der johanneischen Schriften

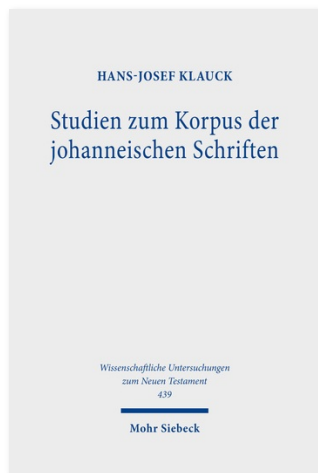

Evangelium, Briefe, Apokalypse, Akten

[Studies on Johannine Literature. Gospel, Letters, Apocalypse, Acts]

Published in German.

In this volume, Hans-Josef Klauck presents the manifold topics of the Johannine writings. He begins with John 2–4, as the first missionary journey of Jesus, metaphorically described as a honeymoon, with the formation of the family of God as its main goal. A hermeneutical reflection on the Bible as a normative beginning for theology and church brings the volume to a close.

Hans-Josef Klauck Geboren 1946; 1977 Promotion; 1980 Habilitation; 1982–97 Professor in Würzburg; 1997–2001 Professor in München, 1999–2003 Honorarprofessor an der Universität Pretoria/Südafrika; ab 2001 Full Professor, ab 2006 Naomi-Shenstone-Donnelley Professor an der Divinity School der University of Chicago; 2016 emeritiert.
