The Book of Revelation
Currents in British Research on the Apocalypse
Ed. by Garrick V. Allen, Ian Paul and Simon P. Woodman

[Die Offenbarung des Johannes. Strömungen in der britischen Forschung zur Apokalypse.]

Published in English.
This volume represents the diverse range of research interests in the Book of Revelation operative in current British research, examining questions of genre, structure, composition, scriptural reuse, exegesis, thematic issues, and reception history. This collection, from a distinguished and diverse group of senior and junior scholars, is accessible to a broad range of readers, and is relevant for a number of critical conversations pertaining not only to the Apocalypse, but also to broader avenues of discourse in New Testament and Early Christian studies.

Survey of contents

Garrick V. Allen: Introducing The Book of Revelation: Currents in British Research on the Apocalypse

Text, Structure, and Persuasion

Context, Interpretation, and Genre

Reception

Afterword
Steve Moyise: A Response to Currents in British Research on the Apocalypse

Garrick V. Allen
Born 1988; 2015 PhD; Lecturer in New Testament Studies at Dublin City University, Republic of Ireland.

Ian Paul is Honorary Associate Professor at the University of Nottingham, Associate Minister at St Nicholas’ Church, Nottingham and Managing Editor at Grove Books Ltd, Cambridge.

Simon P. Woodman is a former lecturer in Biblical Studies, a Baptist Minister, based at Bloomsbury Central Baptist Church, London and a Chaplain at King's College, London.

Order now:
no_cache=1&cHash=10348eda24c7cbf052b63b853def07c
order@mohrsiebeck.com
Phone: +49 (0)7071-923-17
Fax: +49 (0)7071-51104