Verbraucherschutzrecht

Europäisierung und Materialisierung des deutschen Zivilrechts und die Herausbildung eines Verbraucherschutzprinzips

[Consumer Protection Law. Europeanization and Materialization of German Civil Law and the Development of a Principle of Consumer Protection.]

Published in German.

At times we are faced with the question of »the law behind the law,« that is to say the question of legalities connected by a multitude of associated norms. It is precisely those very diverse regulations in consumer protection law which raise this question. Marina Tamm deals with this issue and presents German consumer protection law in a form which is comprehensible and interesting to the layperson and the expert.
